NEW & UPDATED PRAYER REQUEST

Dick and Eva Weaver – I would ask for prayer on the 7th of Jan , I have to have another heart cath. I had a cath about 1 1/2 years ago and there was 40% blockage at that point in time.

Joanna Romine – Please continue to remember Tom and his family in the death of his dad on January 2.

Doug Joyner - Please continue to pray for my brother's grandson, Nathan Canter. He is now in his eleventh week at Baptist Hospital. There are many health issues, the most recent concern is his white blood cell count and the loss of 75% of his heart. Pray for strength for his body, courage of his spirit and patience in his pain. Our God is able. Our God is mighty.

Susan Largent – Please remember a young man named Steven Showers. He is 27 and has just been diagnosed with leukemia. Please keep him in your prayers.

Becky Clous – I would like to ask prayer for wisdom in choosing a job. I am looking to re-enter the workplace part-time, after being primarily a stay-at-home mom for 12 years. I feel nervous, scared, and ill-equipped, and I know that I am trying to find a job at possibly the worst time in recent years. But I trust all of that to God, and most of all I would like to have wisdom to find just what God has for me that will still allow my focus to be on my family and God's call on my life. Also, please pray for Jeff's family, especially his Aunt Pat. Last night she lost her husband of 50 years, Ken, after a short battle with pancreatic cancer (he was only diagnosed in Sept.). She is likely having a hard time with this, especially since she just lost her father (Jeff's grandpa) a year ago, and her and Ken's daughter (Cindy, who is only in her 40's) is battling breast cancer. As always, please pray that this will bring this family to the Lord.

Lori Compton – Please keep my mother, Gaye Harper, in your prayers. She fell New Year's Eve and broke her elbow. Even though she is bruised and sore, she is very thankful no other bones were broken. She has an appointment with an orthopedic surgeon this Fri. Our family appreciates your prayers. What a blessing to know we can bring our cares to God in prayer and He hears us!!

Susie Larimore - Please remember my daughter-in-law, Karly's, grandpa Larson who lives in PA. He fell and cracked open his head yesterday. He has had 3 blood transfusions already. The doctors are having a difficult time getting the wound to close.
